

Our Assumption Graduates Say:

Class of 2009

"Balancing chemical equations helped in science."

"The research paper helped me to understand how to write a thesis."

"The art projects were helpful, especially the drawing projects."

"The sports that we did and studied in PE helped in high school."

"The music performances and guitar program helped me in high school."

"Learning to read notes helped in music."

"Two years of Spanish before high school was great."

"Taking notes in science was helpful."

"Using the math book has allowed me to step into freshman year understanding the basics of algebra."

"In Spanish learning the basic vocabulary and verb conjugation have helped me tremendously this year."

"We started high school algebra in the second semester of 8th grade and Mrs. Bender explained it well and was patient with us."

"Mr. Karl was very straightforward and had a good class structure and kept us on track. We learned about different ways to write. Ms. Turner really helped me as a writer."

"I enjoyed learning to play the guitar."

"Learning research tactics in computer class helped in high school."

"Chemistry helped in high school."

"Writing music helped me in high school."

"Doing grammar helped so much."

"Having homework each night helped for high school."

"Having detailed tests in social studies helped for high school."

"Doing experiments in science class helped prepare me for high school."

"Spanish has helped freshman Spanish so much! We built off everything we talked about with Mrs. Rodden."

Class of 2008

"Religion gave me a faith foundation."

"I knew everything in Freshman English."

"Reading To Kill a Mockingbird was a strength in Literature."

"To Kill a Mockingbird and activities that went with it were just like high school."

"Different math levels helped."

"Term papers helped in English."

"Study skills and notetaking helped in Social Studies."

"Analyzing stories, taking apart a novel, and creative writing were strengths."

"Everything in Spanish class helps in high school."

"Grammar helped me tremendously!"

"PowerPoint and Excel helped in computer classes."

"All the work with polynomials helped in math."